HY Lovitz

FRIDAY, APRIL 16, 2010 · 6:30-9:00PM

When Hy Lovitz was fifteen he borrowed an early Kodak fold-out extension camera and took it to the Schuylkill River where he photographed the picturesque Strawberry Mansion Bridge and some of his friends. This is his earliest recollection of taking photographs and it was the beginning of his interest and love of photography.

Hy uses the digital art form to create prints that are achieving acclaim. His pictures inspire both an emotional and an intellectual reaction in the viewer.

For the past fifty-three years, while he was taking photographs and learning about photography, he was also a Philadelphia Trial Lawyer. He is a member of the Churchville Camera Club and won a prize for the most creative photograph. Hy has exhibited at the Arts Bridge Show in Lambertville and at the Conference and Visitors Center of Bucks County. When he was a member of the Cheltenham Camera Club, he was twice the recipient of the annual Pat Mann Award for the best Photograph of the year. His photographs will be exhibited at the Phillips Mill Photographic Exhibition.
